

LITERARY SURVEY · SIXTEEN SESSIONS

Minority Voices in American Literature

Douglass to Ocean Vuong: Black, Latinx, Asian American, Native American voices

The American literary tradition contains more traditions than one. This course honors the plural. Slave narratives, the Harlem Renaissance, the Chicano and Nuyorican movements, the Asian American canon, the Native American Renaissance, and the writers still shaping American letters today. Every text opens a room; the point is to walk into as many as we can.
